

Senator Russell B. Long
U. S. Senate Bldg.
Washington, D. C.

5 August 1964

Dear Senator Long:

May I urge you, as a member of the Foreign Relations Committee, to seek the passage of Senate Resolution 204 before the Senate adjourns?

This resolution, condemning Soviet anti - Semitism and, indeed, religious persecution of any kind, is part and parcel of our American heritage --- not only our belief in individual freedom, but our legacy to insure this freedom, as well.

It is imperative that religious persecution in the Soviet Union be condemned, for surely no one of us can really exercise his freedom as long as there exists the infringement of the innate rights of other men.

Thank you for your support of this urgent measure.

Sincerely yours,

Mrs. Richard Schornstein, Jr.
